

2. Lisa - Poacher

*"I evaded the Duke's gamekeepers all my life, and revenants are even dumber.
I can get us past. Follow me."*

With her bow, cunning, and a dose of cold blood, Lisa kept her little brothers and sisters fed after their parents died. Hunting the Duke's game is a capital offense, but an empty stomach can make a person very bold in their desperation. When the Black Plague began, Lisa soon discovered that an arrow can kill a walking cadaver even easier than a stag. However, one can't feast on undead flesh.
